Kendal Weisenmiller is a seasoned trust and probate litigation attorney with ten years of experience representing executors, administrators, beneficiaries, heirs, creditors, and private and professional fiduciaries in trusts and estates of all sizes. She has worked on matters with varying complexity, successfully representing clients in all forms of trust and probate litigation in Nevada. Kendal has been recognized locally and nationally for her work in trust and estate administration, litigation and guardianships.

Kendal is a graduate of Brigham Young University, where she graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science before seeking a Juris Doctorate at the University of Nevada, William S. Boyd School of Law. During her time in law school, Kendal served as a staff member of the Nevada Law Journal and Managing Editor of the Nevada Gaming Journal. She was a recipient of the CALI Award in Lawyering Process for legal writing.

Kendal has published in Nevada Lawyer and co-authored Nevada Civil Practice Manual, Chapter 39: Estates of Deceased Persons.

Kendal is an active member of Nevada's legal community. She is a member and the publications chair of the State Bar of Nevada, Probate Section, a member of the Clark County Bar Association, a former member of Southern Nevada Association of Women Attorneys, and a former member of the Howard D. McKibben Inns of Court. Her pro bono support for the at-need in the community has earned her a place in the 100 Hour Club with the Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada. Kendal is also a member of the Henderson Chamber of Commerce Leadership Henderson class of 2017-2018 and a member of the Enterprise Town Advisory Board, Clark County, Nevada since January of 2019.

Kendal is licensed to practice in Nevada.
