

biography

Kari L. Stephens is Of Counsel at JEFFREY BURR. Her practice focuses on trust administration, probate and estate planning.

Kari completed her undergraduate studies at Oregon State University where she earned a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration (Magna Cum Laude). She went on to study law, earning her Juris Doctorate (Cum Laude) from Willamette University College of Law in Salem, Oregon, graduating fifth in her class. Prior to practicing in Nevada, Kari practiced law in Oregon and Washington.

Kari is actively involved in the legal community. Kari is the Past President (2013) of the Clark County Bar Association, having served on the Association's Executive Board from 2006 through 2014. From 2003 to 2010, she acted as a Trustee for the State Bar of Nevada's Clients' Security Fund Committee. Kari is currently a member of the Probate and Trust Law section of the State Bar. Kari was also selected as Vegas Inc.'s 2013 Women to Watch.

Kari is licensed to practice law in Nevada, Oregon and Washington, before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, the U.S. District Court for the District of Nevada and the U.S. District Court for the District of Oregon.

“With compassion, we endeavor to provide guidance and counsel on a personal level to you and your family concerning all aspects of the trust administration and probate processes.”
