

biography

Rebecca J. Haines is an associate attorney at JEFFREY BURR. She focuses her practice in the area of estate planning and trust litigation.

Rebecca graduated from Brigham Young University in 2010 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business. Rebecca earned her Juris Doctorate from California Western School of Law, San Diego (Cum Laude), while also earning a Master of Business Administration from San Diego State University.

Rebecca received Academic Achievement Awards for writing and business planning, and maintained a position on the Dean's Honors list throughout her time at California Western. She served as President of the J. Reuben Clark Law Society and was also a Contracts Tutor.

Prior to attending law school, Rebecca studied abroad in Scotland where she interned for a Member of the Scottish Parliament and supported the Scottish National Party as they worked towards independence from Great Britain.

While attending law school, Rebecca was an intern at Elder Law and Advocacy of San Diego where she assisted low income elders with their basic estate planning needs. She also gained experience at an estate planning law firm in Carlsbad, California where she helped clients to achieve their estate planning goals.

Rebecca is licensed to practice law in Nevada.

REBECCA J. HAINES

"Being a good estate planner requires taking the time necessary to understand each client's unique circumstances, needs, and goals."
